

Project Management
for Social Good.

Apply Now to Take Advantage of our Scholarship and Award Programs

The PMI Educational Foundation (PMIEF) is pleased to invite individuals to apply for its scholarship and award programs. PMIEF administers an array of scholarships and awards for college/university students and project management practitioners. Thanks to the support and contributions of several PMI communities and donors, these programs support both students enrolled in degree studies and professionals engaged in continuing education as well as recognize outstanding contributions to the field. In addition to the information below, detailed eligibility requirements and application details may be found at pmief.org/scholarships-grants-and-awards/scholarships.

Academic Scholarships

High school seniors who plan to pursue college/university studies in project management or a related field, as well as individuals currently enrolled in these kinds of bachelor, master and doctoral degree programs, may apply for various academic scholarships. While the PMIEF website specifies the eligibility requirements for each, all students may apply for the following academic scholarships:

- Dr. Harold Kerzner Scholarships
- PMI Eric Jenett Memorial Fellows Scholarship
- PMI Information Systems Community of Practice Global Scholarship Fund
- Gaylord E. (Gary) Christle Scholarship
- Matthew H. Parry Memorial Scholarship

- PMI Eric Jenett Founders Scholarship
- PMIEF Academic Scholarship Program of the University of Management and Technology
- Robert J. Yourzak Scholarship Award

The deadline to apply for all academic scholarships is 1 May 2015. Visit pmief.org/scholarships-grants-and-awards/scholarships for more information.

Professional Development Scholarships

Project management practitioners who wish to enhance their abilities may apply for a professional development scholarship. The PMIEF website specifies the application criteria and deadlines for these scholarships, which include:

Eric Jenett Professional Development Scholarship Fund: The PMI Houston Chapter and friends of Eric Jenett donate this scholarship, which honors a champion of project management education and the project management profession. It provides a maximum of US$1,250 each year either wholly or in part to either one or more individuals. Practitioners who seek to either obtain or maintain a PMI certification receive preference.

George Patton Memorial Scholarship: The PMI Washington, DC Chapter donates this scholarship, which provides a maximum of US$2,000 twice per year either wholly or in part to either one or more individuals in the spring and fall.

Members of the PMI Washington, DC Chapter receive special consideration.

Jerry King Memorial Scholarship for Project Management Excellence:

Friends of Jerry King donate this scholarship, which honors the former leader of the PMI San Diego Chapter. It provides US$1,000, with preference given to PMI chapter members, active volunteers or family members of either a member or volunteer in PMI Region 7 (California, Hawaii, New Mexico, Nevada and Arizona).

Kenneth Hartley Project Leadership Development Scholarship: Kenneth O. Hartley, PMP, PMI Fellow, and friends donate this scholarship, which provides a maximum of US $1,250 each year either wholly or in part to either one or more individuals.

The Kerzner Award

Sponsored by the International Institute for Learning (IIL), the Kerzner Award recognizes a project manager who most emulates the professional dedication and excellence of Dr. Harold Kerzner, PhD, MS, MBA.

Dr. Kerzner is Senior Executive Director at IIL. In addition to his distinguished academic, training and consulting contributions to project management, he is a globally recognized expert and best-selling author on project, program and portfolio management, total quality management and strategic planning.

Continued on page 19

---

Apply Now to Take Advantage of our Scholarship and Award Programs Continued from page 15

The recipient of the Kerzner Award exemplifies superior performance as well as outstanding project management methods and skills. Furthermore, the individual provides important contributions in a business, industry, government, community or nonprofit environment.

The recipient of the Kerzner Award will receive:

- IIL training valued at US$5,000;
- A cash prize of US$2,500; and

- An expenses-paid trip to the 2015 PMI® Global Congress—North America, where he or she will be recognized.

Nominations are due 15 May 2015.

Visit pmief.org/scholarships-grants-and-awards/awards/the-kerzner-award for more information.

---