PMIEF Scholarship and Award Opportunities

Your Future Is at Your Fingertips

The PMI Educational Foundation (PMIEF) is pleased to invite college/university students and project management practitioners to apply for the various scholarship and award opportunities offered throughout the year. Thanks to the support and contributions of several PMI communities and donors, these programs support both students enrolled in project management-related degree programs and professionals engaged in continuing education, as well as recognize outstanding contributions to the field of project management. The types of scholarship and award opportunities are listed below. Please visit pmief.org for specific criteria and details.

Scholarship Opportunities

PMIEF Academic Scholarship Application

Deadline: 1 May

The application is open to high school seniors and college/university students planning to pursue college/university studies in project management or a related field during the last half of 2018. Individuals currently enrolled in a bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree program are encouraged to apply as well. Students will be considered for all academic scholarships for which the criteria are met. Separate applications are not required. The scholarship value range is US$2,500 to US$7,500.

PMIEF Professional Development and Training Scholarship Application

Deadlines: 1 July and 1 September

The application is open to emerging and established project management practitioners, nonprofits/NGOs, teachers and administrators seeking to enhance their project management learning and/or pursue a certification. Applicants will be considered for all tuition-waived and cash-reimbursable professional development and training scholarships for which the criteria are met. Separate applications are not required. The cash-reimbursement scholarship value range is US$1,000 to US$3,500.

Award Opportunities

PMIEF award recipients will be recognized at the PMI® Global Conference in Los Angeles, California, USA.

Kerzner Award for Excellence in Project Management

Deadline: 15 May

The award is sponsored by International Institute for Learning, Inc. (IIL), and is open to project managers who most emulate the professional dedication and excellence of Harold Kerzner, MS, MBA, PhD. Individuals who demonstrate an interest in continuing education and personal development in project management skills and techniques are encouraged to apply.

PMIEF Community Advancement Through Project Management Award

Deadline: 20 May

The award focuses on the pro bono partnership of individuals and groups who transfer project management skills to nonprofits/nongovernmental organizations. Recipients will be awarded in three separate categories: corporations/government agencies, individual project managers and PMI chapters.
